The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, January 25 1705.

IN yeſterday's Courant a Journal was given of the Motions of the Squadron commanded by Sir John Leake; which ſhews that from the 18th to the 23d of December they were driven by the Current in Calms, or by contrary Winds, as far up the Mediterranean as Caſtel Ferro; during which time the Squadron under the Baron de Pointis kept on this ſide the Mouth of the Streights. We ſhall now, both for the Credit of the Bruſſels Gazetteer, and purſuant to our Method of relating what is ſaid on both ſides, give the following Paſſage from the Bruſſels Gazette of the 27th of January.

Madrid, Jan. 7. Letters from Cadix adviſe, that the Baron de Pointis having ſeveral Times attempted to enter the Streights, to fight the Enemy's Fleet before Gibraltar, without being able to effect it by reaſon of contrary Winds, was return'd with his Squadron to an Anchor in the Bay of Cadix, to wait a more favourable opportunity.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Jan. 24.

Venice, Jan. 3. Letters from Breſcia adviſe, that the Imperialiſts had made a great Forrage towards Caſtagnato, on the other ſide of the Mela, whence they carried off all the Hay that was in that part of the Country. Notwithſtanding which they begin to want Forrage, becauſe the French ſtreighten them more and more on all ſides. The Germans poſted in Monpiano, Nave, and other Places at the Foot of the Mountains, cannot get Forrage but from the Country lying juſt in the Neighbourhood of thoſe Places, and which they have almoſt exhauſted. But thoſe that are poſted at Gavardo, and in the Neighbourhood of the Lake of Guarda, are in ſo great Want of Forrage, that the Officers of Foot are oblig'd to ſell their Horſes. The Imperialiſts give out that a Reinforcement of 500 Foot is arriv'd in their Camp, by the way of the Rocca d'Anfo; and alſo 600 Horſe, which will augment the ſcarcity of Forrage; the Grand Prior of France having ſhut up all the Paſſages by which they might have extended themſelves into the flat Country. He has very lately poſted near Virli 400 Horſe and 500 Grenadiers, who ſcour the Country, from Calcinato to Breſcia. We have Advice, that 2000 Horſe and 500 Grenadiers, French, ſent from Soncino, poſſeſs'd themſelves the 28th of laſt Month of Palazzuolo on the Oglio; which will enable them to diſpute the Forrage of that part of the Country with the Imperialiſts, and in a little Time to fall upon their Forragers. And 'tis alſo already advis'd, that a Party of French have defeated, near San-Zeno below Breſcia, a Party of Huſſars, ſeveral of which entred Breſcia to be cur'd there of their Wounds; and that a Party of French Huſſars have ſurpriz'd and carry'd off a Guard of 10 German Cuiraſſiers. The French are laying up great ſtore of Hay at Soncino, Calce, and Palazzuolo, whither the Country People carry their Hay willingly, becauſe they are punctually paid for it. The Imperialiſts are very much interrupted in fetching Proviſions over the Lake of Guarda from Torbole and other Places, by 3 Barks which the Grand Prior of France has caus'd to be fitted out: and which, we are inform'd, have taken 2 that the Count of Leiningen had caus'd to be equipp'd. We are aſſur'd likewiſe, that ſeveral German Troopers have deſerted with their Horſes to the French, and agree in reporting that their Army cannot ſubſiſt much longer in the Mountains. The Advices from Mirandola, import, that the Garriſon of that Place complain they want things neceſſary for their Subſiſtance, ſince they have been ſo cloſely ſtreighten'd by the new Forts which the French have made ſo near the Town that nothing can be brought into it; and that they will not in all likelihood be able to hold out much longer.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Jan. 30.

Venice, Jan. 17. The 2 Armies in the Breſſan continue in their former Poſts, without making any Motions except to forrage. The Imperialiſts are advanc'd into the Neighbourhood of Guſſago, whence they have ſent a conſiderable Quantity of Hay to their Camp at Gavardo: Where a great deal is conſum'd; for the Imperial Cavalry is more numerous than that of the French. They write from that Camp, that ſeveral Officers are arriv'd there from Germany, who report that 7000 Men are marching after them, and will arrive there by the end of this Month. Some Action has paſs'd between the Imperialiſts and French near Deſenzano, but we have not the Particulars.
